

CALL ANDANES D'ART.

Catalog of artists, spaces and cultural resources in the municipality of Alboraya

Pioneering project in Alboraya aimed at artists who reside, work or study in the municipality.
Open call.

The Andanes d'Art project, of the Alboraya City Council and Tectónica Cultural, works to make visible the artists of its municipal area. For this purpose, it prepares a catalog of studios, workshops, academies, art spaces and individuals who work in the artistic or cultural sector, who reside, work or study in the municipality of Alboraya.

Likewise, public and private spaces that can be used by artists will also be mapped. In the end we want to know what the cultural reality of our town is and look for ways to contribute to improving it and creating a town.

Andanes d'Art is a commitment to promote art and culture as an engine of economic development, positioning Alboraya as a friendly and collaborative municipality for artists and creative people. The project seeks to make artists visible, identify and facilitate public and private resources and establish bridges of dialogue with training, art and culture centers.

It is about asserting this characteristic of the municipality with the aim of attracting and promoting local talent, projecting in the town and l'Horta through a pioneering, sustainable proposal and the use of resources. In this way, Alboraya wants to make evident its commitment to welcoming and promoting this group and making itself known as a friendly and welcoming town for the cultural and creative industries.

WHO CAN APPLY TO THE ARTIST CATALOG?

Artists, creators, musicians, artisans, cultural professionals or amateurs who reside, work, study or dedicate their time to art in the municipality of Alboraya, whether they have work spaces or not.

BENEFITS OF BEING IN THE CATALOG

Being part of Andanes d'Art means being part of a municipal network of resources, public and private, of care and mutual collaboration that enriches the neighborhood experience, and in the end makes us visible as creators in the local cultural context. Being part of Andanes d'Art is making people through art and culture.

HOW TO TAKE PART

Filling out the fields of the following form: <https://forms.gle/fvo9tGzv8gWBvKceA>

With the data obtained, Tectónica Cultural will contact the applicants to, in a second instance, meet them personally and, if they have a creation space, arrange a date for their visit.